The Kent County Sheriff Dept is investigating the several the theft and sale of a large amount of personal property from Evergreen Storage facility located at 4000 Alpine Ave in Comstock Park. Investigators believe that former employees illegally entered stole items from several storage units. On Oct 3, 2012 the contents of numerous storage units were sold at an unauthorized auction held by the same employees.

Several victims have been identified including Grand Rapids Griffins player Gustav Nyquist who was called up to the NHL to play with the Detroit Red Wings for several games last year. The game puck from his first goal as Red Wing is one of numerous items reported missing after the Oct 3 auction. Detectives have recovered the puck and it was returned to Nyquist.
